NPYM FAITH AND PRACTICE EDITORIAL CORRECTIONS
as of 7/2020

The North Pacific Yearly Meeting Faith & Practice Committee has reached unity that the following changes should be made in the next edition of Faith and Practice. These are general “housekeeping” corrections for accuracy (factual updates such as committee names), clarity, and editorial style. These changes do not call for seasoning among Friends. Significant additions, deletions, and changes in meaning in Faith and Practice will require wide discernment among Friends. The Faith & Practice Committee is already gathering a list of potential concerns for substantive changes. Pages 190-91 outline the ways that Friends can suggest changes for the Faith & Practice Committee to consider.

Strike through font indicates a deletion, underlining indicates a new word or phrase to add.

1. CHANGES FOR ACCURACY (factual updates)

“Ministry & Oversight” is now “Ministry & Counsel”

The name of the committee called “Ministry & Oversight” in NPYM’s revised Faith and Practice, published in spring 2018, changed to “Ministry & Counsel” in fall of that year, prompted by discussion and discernment at Annual Session around a minute on systemic racism. Understanding that the word “oversight” carries painful meaning from slavery times, especially for Friends of Color, that committee proposed changing its name to “Ministry & Counsel.” The NPYM Coordinating approved the change on 10/27/2018, noting it as one step in NPYM’s efforts to recognize and uproot organizational racism.

References to this committee will be corrected throughout the next edition of Faith and Practice.
